SITUATION IS COMPLICATED,

Receivers Attempting to Straighten Out Siegel Affairs.

New York, January 1.—Accountants were busy to-day making an examination of the books of Simpson-Crawford and the Fourteenth Street Store, which went into the hands of receivers on Tuesday. William A.
Marbie, one of the receivers, said to-night:

'I have been in consultation with Mr.
Sheppard, my associate receiver, for several hours to-day. He has just returned from Boston, where he will look after the interests of the Siegel store in that city, and we find that substantially the same situation exists there as here. The situation is greatly complicated, and it will be some little time before we are able to make any definite statements. In the meantime, we desire it to be known that we have absolutely nothing to withhold from the public, and will make public all the detail of the condition of the stores just as soon as we get them ourseives. seives."

It was learned to-day that a committee of the creditors of the stores, for which receivers have been appointed, will be formed on Friday to co-operate with the receivers in straightening out affairs.

The same situation prevuils as to the Henry Siegel & Company Bank, books of which are being exhaustively investigated. A meeting of depositors of the bank will be held at to-morrow morning's meeting to take steps to safeguard their interests.
